INTRODUCTION

Frustrated and impatient while wandering in the wilderness, the people of Israel fashion an idol of a golden calf. Angry that they would worship this idol at the very moment God is appearing to Moses on Mt. Sinai, God threatens to punish them. Moses intercedes on their behalf, reminding God that they are God's people. Remembering the covenant, God forgives them.

INVOCATION AND LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism.

L Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, the fountain of living water, the rock who gave us birth, our light and our salvation.

C Amen

L No matter where you are in North America, you are on Indigenous Land. Today, we gather on the traditional homelands of the Dakota and Anishinaabe people. We wish to honor the original inhabitants of North America, to repent of the harm done to indigenous peoples, and to inspire us to work for equality and justice for people of all races, ethnicities, and cultural backgrounds. Today we gather and we see that the cycles of life continue. We have been given the duty to live in balance and harmony with each other and all living things.

CONFESSON OF SIN

L Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Faithful God,

C have mercy on us.
We confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves.
We turn from your loving embrace and go our own ways.
We pass judgment on one another before examining ourselves.
We place our own needs before those of our neighbors.
We keep your gift of salvation to ourselves.
Make us humble, cast away our transgressions,
and turn us again to life in you
through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.
Amen

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

L God hears the cries of all who call out in need, and through his death and resurrection, Christ has made us his own. Hear the truth that God proclaims: Your sins are forgiven in the name of † Jesus Christ. Led by the Holy Spirit, live in freedom and newness to do God's work in the world.

C Amen

 and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Faithful God of an unfaithful people,
 The people of Israel doubted your power and turned to other gods to fulfill their needs.
 We too, turn to other gods, seeking acceptance, power, and independence.
 Show us how to live humbly in you, and walk in your ways, in the name of the one who offered true power to all humanity, Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord.

Amen

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.

READING

Exodus 32:1-14

<sup>1</sup>When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron, and said to him, "Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him." <sup>2</sup>Aaron said to them, "Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me." <sup>3</sup>So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron. <sup>4</sup>He took the gold from them, formed it in a mold, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!" <sup>5</sup>When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, "Tomorrow shall be a festival to the LORD." <sup>6</sup>They rose early the next day, and offered burnt offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel. <sup>7</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; <sup>8</sup>they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!'" <sup>9</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. <sup>10</sup>Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation." <sup>11</sup>But Moses implored the LORD his God, and said, "O LORD, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? <sup>12</sup>Why should the Egyptians say, 'It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth'? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. <sup>13</sup>Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, 'I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.'" <sup>14</sup>And the LORD changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

The reading may be concluded:

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

All sing "In the Lord I'll Be Ever Thankful"
