INTRODUCTION

On the day we celebrate Francis of Assisi, patron saint of animals and environment, we hear of God's creation of all creatures great and small, as well as the special role God gave humans in tending and caring for animals. Many of us know what a blessing animals are in our lives; today we bless them on God's behalf, giving thanks for their special companionship in our lives.

GATHERING SONG

All God's Critters

Refrain:

All God's critters got a place in the choir
Some sing low, and some sing higher
Some sing out loud on the telephone wire
And some just clap their hands, or paws or anything they got now

Verse 1:

Listen to the bass, it's the one on the bottom
Where the bullfrog croaks and the hippopotamus Moans and groans with a big to do
And the old cow just goes, 'Moo'

All sing refrain

Verse 2:

The dogs and the cats they take up the middle
While the honeybee hums and the cricket fiddles
The donkey brays and the pony neighs
And the old coyote howls

All sing refrain

Verse 3:

Listen to the top where the little birds sing
On the melodies with the high notes ringing
The hoot owl hollers over ev'rything
And the jaybird disagrees

All sing refrain

Verse 4:

Singing in the nighttime, singing in the day
The little duck quacks and he's on his way
The 'possum ain't got much to say
And the porcupine talks to himself

All sing refrain

Verse 5:

It's a simple song of living sung ev'rywhere
By the ox and the fox and the grizzly bear,
The grumpy alligator and the hawk above,
The sly raccoon and the turtle dove.

All sing refrain

SUNG RESPONSE

Deep Peace

Makeever

Deep peace of the run - ning waves, deep peace of the flow - ing air, deep peace of the shin - ing stars to you, deep peace of the qui - et earth.

FIRST READING

Genesis 2:4b-10, 15-25

In the day that the Lord GOD made the earth and the heavens, <sup>5</sup>when no plant of the field was yet in the earth and no herb of the field had yet sprung up — for the Lord GOD had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no one to till the ground; <sup>6</sup>but a stream would rise from the earth, and water the whole face of the ground — <sup>7</sup>then the Lord GOD formed man from the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and the man became a living being. <sup>8</sup>And the Lord GOD planted a garden in Eden, in the east; and there he put the man whom he had formed. <sup>9</sup>Out of the ground the Lord GOD made to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food, the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.<sup>15</sup>The Lord GOD took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it. <sup>16</sup>And the Lord GOD commanded the man, "You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; <sup>17</sup>but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die." <sup>18</sup>Then the Lord GOD said, "It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner." <sup>19</sup>So out of the ground the Lord GOD formed every animal of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. <sup>20</sup>The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper as his partner. <sup>21</sup>So the Lord GOD caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. <sup>22</sup>And the rib that the Lord GOD had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. <sup>23</sup>Then the man said, "This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called Woman, for out of Man this one was taken."<sup>24</sup>Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh. <sup>25</sup>And the man and his wife were both naked, and were not ashamed.

The reading may be concluded:
Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

All sing "Deep Peace"

SECOND READING Psalm 84:1-4

<sup>1</sup>How lovely is your dwelling place, O LORD of hosts!
<sup>2</sup>My soul longs, indeed it faints for the courts of the LORD;
my heart and my flesh sing for joy to the living God.
<sup>3</sup>Even the sparrow finds a home,
and the swallow a nest for herself,
where she may lay her young, at your altars,
O LORD of hosts,
my King and my God.
<sup>4</sup>Happy are those who live in your house,
ever singing your praise.
Selah

RESPONSE Song for Autumn Oliver

Don't you imagine the leaves dream now how comfortable it will be to touch the earth instead of the nothingness of the air and the endless freshets of wind? And don't you think the trees, especially those with mossy hollows, are beginning to look for the birds that will come—six, a dozen—to sleep inside their bodies? And don't you hear the goldenrod whispering goodbye, the everlasting being crowned with the first tuffets of snow? The pond stiffens and the white field over which the fox runs so quickly brings out its long blue shadows. The wind wags its many tails.
And in the evening the piled firewood shifts a little longing to be on its way.

All sing "Deep Peace"

REFLECTION Pastor Peter Hanson

 Give us this day our daily bread;
 and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;

 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power,
 and the glory,
 forever and ever.
 Amen
